Crematorium/cremation authority address:

Cremation authority registration number:

Time of cremation:

Name of the deceased:

This is a statutory form, prescribed by the Cremation (Scotland) Regulations 2019. The information and questions contained in this form must not be changed.

This form must be used to apply for the cremation of an adult or a child. An adult is someone who is 16 years old or older at the time of death. A child is someone under 16 at the time of death.

The application is made to the cremation authority you want to carry out the cremation. The cremation authority is the organisation responsible for running the crematorium where the cremation is to take place. As the person who is applying for the cremation, you are 'the applicant'. You must have the legal right to apply for the cremation. If it is necessary to change crematorium for any reason a new Form A1 should be completed.

The cremation authority will need to check the form to make sure it contains all of the necessary information. Missing information or information that is not accurate may result in the cremation being delayed or refused. If you are unsure about any of the information that is required, or are not sure what any part of the form means, you should speak to the funeral director who is making the arrangements, staff at the crematorium, or to any other person who is arranging the funeral. You do not have to use the services of a funeral director to arrange a cremation but where one is being used the funeral director must sign the relevant part of section 5 of this form.

Personal data

The information provided on this form is a legal requirement under the Burial and Cremation (Scotland) Act 2016 and will be processed in line with data protection legislation. The data will be held by the cremation authority that is carrying out the cremation. It will be held securely, in confidence and processed solely for purposes set out by or under the Burial and Cremation (Scotland) Act 2016. It will not be shared with any third party other than an inspector of cremation, if requested. You have the right to know what data is held about you and you can, by contacting the cremation authority in writing, receive a copy of that data. The cremation authority is obliged to include in their privacy notice how the information will be held, for how long and how you may make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office.

Required documents

You should ensure that you have attached all required documents to this application form. The cremation authority must have them for the cremation to take place. Different documents are required depending on whether the death occurred in Scotland, England, Wales, Northern Ireland or abroad. A Form E1 is required if the procurator fiscal investigated the death. See the Guidance Notes (a) for more information.

Section 3: Hazards

This section is used to record details of anything which might be a hazard during cremation – for example, certain implants or the presence of particular diseases. Certain hazards may need to be removed from the body before cremation can take place. Implants or devices may damage cremation equipment if not removed before cremation. Some radioactive treatments may endanger the health of crematorium staff.

The presence of some hazards may delay or prevent cremation taking place. If you are in any doubt about this, you must discuss it with the funeral director or crematorium staff.

Are you aware if any of the following apply:

Does the body pose a risk to public health: for example did the deceased have a notifiable infectious disease or was their body contaminated immediately before death?	Yes	No
--	-----	----

Is there a cardiac pacemaker or any other potentially explosive device currently present in or on the body?	Yes	No
---	-----	----

Is there radioactive material or any other hazardous implant currently present in or on the body?	Yes	No
---	-----	----

If you answered 'yes' to the questions about a cardiac pacemaker and/or radioactive material, please give details and state whether the device has been removed.

Section 4: Disposal of ashes

This section is used to record what is to happen to the ashes after cremation.

The term “ashes” means the material (other than any metal) to which human remains are reduced by cremation including the coffin and any clothing.

All necessary steps will be used in order to fully recover ashes, but in the event that ashes are not recovered, the inspector of cremation will investigate the reasons.

Metals may be recycled by the cremation authority to help reduce the impact on the environment. Each crematorium will have their own practices. Should you wish to dispose of the metals in any other way then please indicate by ticking the box and metals will be returned to you within the cremated remains or separately from them.

You must choose only one of the following options (A, B or C). Please tick the box and then initial beside the option you have chosen.

Options will vary at each crematorium. For more information you can discuss with the funeral director or cremation authority the options available for ashes at your chosen crematorium or visit the crematorium’s website. Some cremation authorities may offer to split the ashes but you should confirm with them first if they are able to do so. If so please add details of how the ashes are to be split to the Special Instructions section below.
